

DEMOCRATS SCORE WONDERFUL VICTORY

In New York They Elected Dix, Defeating Stimson and "New Nationalism"—New Jersey Elected Woodrow Wilson Governor—In Ohio Governor Harmon Was Re-elected—National House of Representatives Will Be Democratic and Republican Majority in the Senate May Be Wiped Out—Tariff Generally Accepted by National Chairmen as Cause of the Upheaval.

The sweep of the political tidal wave which rolled over the country is further emphasized by additional returns and revised figures at hand today.

The Democratic majority in the house of representatives will be at least 42 and possibly more, as compared with the present Republican majority of 43.

Added to the reversal in the lower branch of Congress the morning returns showed the Republican majority of 26 in the United States senate rapidly approaching the vanishing point, although the Republicans are now reasonably assured of 48 senators, or one more than the necessary majority with a number of states still in doubt. The most notable changes from those presented last night are summed up as follows:

In Ohio, a Democratic legislature has been elected, insuring a Democratic successor to Senator Dick, Republican, and the plurality of Gov. Harmon is increased to 60,000.

The West Virginia legislature is Democratic and will elect a Democratic senator.

In Indiana, the legislature which chooses a successor to Senator Beveridge, is in doubt, with the Democrats claiming a majority of 12 and the Republicans maintaining Beveridge will have a small margin.

Iowa is still uncertain, with both sides claiming the governor.

In Pennsylvania, the legislature is safely Republican and will elect a Republican successor to Senator Oliver.

Washington has a Republican legislature, which appears to insure the election of Miles Poindexter to the seat.

The Utah legislature, which elects a United States senator, also is Republican, while that of Montana is in doubt.

Indications point to the election of the Republican candidate for governor of California, Hiram W. Johnson, by a heavy plurality.

Incomplete returns from Oregon indicate the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, Oswald West, by a small plurality.

The Missouri legislature, which elects a United States senator is believed to be safely Democratic.

Aside from these main developments of today, the results already announced remain practically unchanged. The plurality of John A. Dix, Democrat, elected governor of New York approximates 65,000. Early today Gov. Dix left his home at Thompson's for a rest in the Adirondacks. Mr. Dix carried the entire Democratic state ticket with him to victory.

The plurality of Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, in New Jersey is now placed at 30,000 and of Judge Baldwin, Democrat, in Connecticut at 3,500.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Democrats elected, 221; Republicans elected, 157. Socialist elected, 1. Missing 12. Total, 381.

Gain by Democrats, 55. Gain by Republicans, 2. Net gain for Democrats, 49. Number necessary to control, 196. Present Democratic membership, 172. Working majority for Democrats, 25.

PENNSYLVANIA.
Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Estimates from all but five of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania indicate that John K. Tener, Republican, carried the state by about 25,000 plurality over William H. Berry, the Keystone party candidate. Webster Gilpin, the regular Democratic candidate, ran far behind.

Tener needed Philadelphia to win, the city giving him a plurality of 45,254. Allegheny, which includes Pittsburgh, gave Tener an estimated plurality of 15,000.

The Democrats gained two congressional seats in the legislature. One of the notable victories of the Democrats was the capturing of the Fifth congressional district in Philadelphia, which two years ago gave W. W. Foulkrod a majority of 12,385.

The Socialists elected their first member to the legislature.

OHIO.
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 9.—With 11 assembly districts in doubt, returns received this morning indicate that the Democrats will have 69 seats in the house and 17 in the senate. The total of 86 is nine more than the number required to elect a United States senator to succeed United States Senator Charles Dick.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 9.—The Democrats are now claiming the election of the whole state ticket, from Gov. Harmon down with the possible exception of Attorney General Denman.

Judson Harmon, Democrat, was re-elected governor of Ohio today by a large majority. The returns indicate that he will win by about 250,000 plurality over the Republican candidate, who is still in doubt, owing to a considerable switch in various districts of the state.

In fifteen precincts in Cleveland, Harmon shows a gain of 14 votes to a precinct. The complexion of the legislature is in doubt, but indications are that it will be Republican. The returns show large Democratic gains.

The Plain Dealer this morning says that private election advices from 80 precincts in Ohio gave Harmon a plurality of 60,000.

The remaining eight counties are about evenly divided, with a slight balance in favor of Harding.

It says the entire Democratic ticket is elected.

IOWA.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 9.—Returns from 762 precincts out of 2,300 indicate the re-election of Gov. Carroll. The precincts which gave the incumbent a lead of 2,775 votes.

Whatever the result, it is certain that the aggressive campaign carried on by the Democrats, coupled with factional strife in the Republican ranks, has wiped out the normal Republican plurality in this state—about 60,000. Gov. Carroll was scratched mercilessly, running behind his ticket in practically every precinct. The rest of the Republican state ticket is probably elected.

This state has eleven congressional districts. I. S. Papper, the young Democratic candidate in the Second district, walked away with the election, carrying over 5,000 votes over his opponent, Charles Glick. It was in behalf of the latter that Col. Roosevelt recently made his address at Davenport.

In the Fourth and Sixth districts, respectively, the Republican incumbents, Congressman Haughan and Kendall, were reported in danger. Burlington reported that Congressman Kennedy, Republican, was "safe," but his district was disputed by Democratic Chairman Reid.

The re-election of Congressman Walter T. Smith, a member of the Cannon rules committee, is conceded by 2,500 plurality over W. F. Cleveland. This is a reduction of 2,000.

INDIANA.
Indianapolis, Nov. 9.—That the returns from yesterday's election changed the drift so that the Republicans were assured of a small majority in the legislature and U. S. Senator Beveridge would be re-elected, was the claim of Chairman Lee of the Republican state committee, announced at 5 o'clock this morning. Senator Beveridge said he believed he had defeated John W. Kern, Democrat, by a small margin.

While the count is not official, yet sufficient returns are in to show that the next general assembly of Indiana will be Democratic on joint ballot by a good working majority which probably will be from 12 to 16 precincts. This insures a Democrat to succeed Senator Beveridge.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Concord, N. H., Nov. 9.—The election as governor of Robert P. Bass, of Peterboro, who won the Republican nomination on a progressive platform, was indicated tonight by returns from about one-half of the towns and wards of the state.

These early figures, if borne out, would give Bass a majority of 6,000 votes over his Democratic opponent.

CALIFORNIA.
San Francisco, Nov. 9.—While the returns from yesterday's election are still far from complete, they confirm the earlier estimates of a complete Republican victory in California.

Johnson, Republican candidate for governor, has an indicated plurality of 25,000 to 30,000 and the entire state ticket will approximate his figure.

Practically complete returns from the city of San Francisco show a closer contest than was expected even by the Republicans. Johnson apparently having carried San Francisco by not less than 1,000. In pre-election forecasts the city was conceded to Bell. A solid Republican delegation is returned to Congress and the state legislature is safely Republican, insuring the election of a Republican successor to U. S. Senator Phil.

Congressman G. M. Hitchcock, on the face of the returns, has a safe lead over United States Senator Elmer J. Burkett in the race for the upper house and claims that a Democratic legislature has been chosen, which will assure him the election. Selection for senator is made under the Oregon plan.

Only one district, the Second (Omaha), was sure in the congressional race. C. O. Lobeck, city controller of Omaha, winning by a scant majority over Judge A. L. Sutton. In the First district, William A. Hatch, secretary of the national Republican committee, was in the lead late tonight.

The World-Herald, Mr. Hitchcock's paper, asserts he will carry the state by 20,000 to 40,000.

RHODE ISLAND.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 9.—The re-election of Aram J. Pothier as governor of Rhode Island, by a plurality of 1,200 as against a plurality of about 12,000 at the last election was the outcome of a close contest at the polls in this state. Lewis A. Waterman, Democrat, was Gov. Pothier's opponent.

The incoming general assembly will be largely Republican.

The complete Republican state ticket has been elected.

CONNECTICUT.
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 9.—At 3 o'clock with three towns missing, Baldwin, Democrat, showed a plurality over Goodwin, Republican, of 4,754. The rest of the Republican state ticket is elected by pluralities averaging 5,000. The Democrats gain one congressman. In the house, the Democrats gain about 50 members.

MINNESOTA.
St. Paul, Nov. 9.—One hundred and twenty-one precincts all over the state gave Eberhardt, for governor, Republican, 10,573, and Gray, Democrat, 5,887. R. T. O'Connor said these figures assured Eberhardt's election by 50,000.

St. Paul, Nov. 9.—Minnesota Republicans today elected a complete state ticket and at midnight the indications were that a Republican and 1 Democrat would be sent to Congress. Congressman Hammond, Dem., apparently has been re-elected by a reduced majority.

Sidney Anderson apparently has a safe lead in the First district, which is now represented by James A. Tawney. Gov. Eberhardt's plurality over James Gray, Dem., is estimated at from 40,000 to 50,000.

NEW YORK.
New York City, with only 16 election districts missing, gives Dix 299,078; Stimson, 196,818; Hopper, 39,630. Stimson's up-state plurality was still estimated at about 35,000, leaving a net plurality for Dix of approximately 67,578.

KANSAS.
Topeka, Nov. 9.—Additional returns early this morning are bringing Gov. Stubbs' majority down rapidly. It now appears his majority will be not more than one-third of what it was two years ago.

Stubbs made his race on a progressive Republican platform, and was forced to a vigorous fight by opposing railroad interests. The governor's opponent was George A. Hodges, who, although defeated, reduced Stubbs' majority of two years ago by several thousand votes. The rest of the Republican state ticket is practically certain of election.

The results of the congressional races remain in doubt. In the Third district, P. P. Campbell, a standpat Republican, while in the First district, are running a close race. Frank Rockefeller, a cousin of John D. Rockefeller, and a Democrat, and L. D. Young, a progressive Republican, are having a hard struggle in the Sixth district. The results in these two districts will not be known until tomorrow.

D. P. Anthony, standpat, was re-elected by 10,000 to 12,000 in the First district, while in the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth districts insurgent Republicans were chosen.

NEW JERSEY.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 9.—The election yesterday resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Democrats. Woodrow Wilson, the party candidate for governor, defeated his Republican opponent Vivian M. Lewis, by about 20,000.

The Democrats carried at least 12 of the 21 counties and will control the house of assembly and have the legislature on joint ballot, and will therefore be able to elect a Democrat to the United States senate to succeed John Keen, Jr.

They have won in six and probably eight out of the 10 districts which are represented in the present Congress by seven Republicans and three Democrats. The only two districts the Republicans have surely carried are the First and Second, represented by Henry C. Loudenslager and John J. Gardner, who were candidates for re-election.

The Democrats have probably elected William Tuttle in the Fifth. This district is now represented by Chas. Fowler, progressive Republican, whom the organization refused a renomination.

LOUISIANA.
New Orleans, Nov. 8.—As usual the Democratic nominees for state and congressional seats were elected without exception in today's election. The constitutional amendment providing for a state bond issue of $5,500,000 in support of the proposed international exposition to be held in New Orleans in 1915 was overwhelmingly adopted.

OREGON.
Portland, Ore., Nov. 9.—Although hardly 10 per cent of the vote in Oregon has been counted, Oswald West, Democrat, and former railroad commissioner, is believed to have been elected to the governorship of this state over Jay Bowerman, Republican, and speaker of the Oregon senate, by a plurality of from 2,500 to 5,000.

The counting of the ballots containing a full state ticket and 32 proposed amendments to the constitution, has been the slowest in the history of Oregon.

REPUBLICANS CARRY THE STATE OF UTAH

Number of Surprises Sprung at the Big Battle of the Ballots—Judge Erickson Defeated in His Home County—Representative in Utah County Still in Doubt—Boxelder, Sevier, Sanpete and Cache Land Democratic Candidates Over the Line Into the House of Representatives—"American" Vote in Salt Lake County Falls Off.

While the state has as a whole expressed its confidence in the Republican representatives in Congress and the administration of justice through judges elected by Republican voters by returning Joseph Howell to Congress and D. N. Straup to the supreme bench of the state, yet a number of surprises were developed in the election of yesterday. Up in Cache county, for instance, where a Republican has been returned twice in succession to the state senate, and where the re-election of the Republican candidate seemed assured and all the candidates on the representative ticket went Republican, the Democratic nominee for the senate, according to latest advices from the Cache capital, has been elected by a majority of 65.

Down in Sanpete county, too, was another surprise. Everything seemed favorable for the election of W. D. Livingston, Republican candidate for the state senate. He was defeated for the position by L. M. Olson, Democratic nominee. J. E. Tolton, Democratic candidate for senator from the eleventh district, comprising the counties of Beaver, Iron, Washington and Kane, is also reported to have been elected over his Republican opponent, which will give the Democrats three members of the next state senate, whereas the party had no representative at all in the senate chamber at the last legislature.

ERICKSON'S DEFEAT.
Still another surprise in Sanpete county was the fact that the Republican candidate for Congress won out in the home county of the Democratic nominee, Congressman Howell, polling 2,626 votes in Sanpete county against 2,514 for Judge Erickson.

Sevier county falls in line with her own little surprise and sends to the state legislature a Democrat. For two sessions past Sevier has been represented by Martin Jensen, a rock-ribbed Republican; yet in this campaign of surprises Sevier sends as her next representative J. Peterson, a Democrat.

Lawyer, was elected in the Second district and in the Third district, W. C. Hawley, incumbent, was the successful candidate.

The indications are that Oregon has gone "wet" despite the strenuous fight made by the "dryers."

Returns from many sections of the state today tend to confirm the early estimates, giving Oswald West, Democrat, the governorship of Oregon over Jay Bowerman, Republican.

Returns from Multnomah county precincts are coming in very slowly. Only 24 precincts complete have reported, giving Bowerman a lead of 135 out of 2,800 votes.

That Oregon has voted "wet" seems a certainty.
